OUTLINES.

Guilford College defeats Davidson at baseball and Charlotte shuts out Roanoke——Oscar Tuttle, a young man living in Stokes county, kills his sister with a shotgun. No cause is assigned for the deed——The House committee on Banking and Currency votes to lay on the table the Vreeland substitute for the Aldrich bill and decides to make favorable report of the Fowler bill, which provides for currency commission——The Senate committee on Naval Affairs reports the house bill with amendments increasing the appropriation for pay of the men and for public works. It also increases the number of officers and men of the Marine corps. It does not change the House provision for only two battleships——The Brownsville affair was again the subject of debate in the Senate yesterday. Senator Borah, of Idaho, took issue with Senator Foraker on the question of the negro soldiers' innocence——The late Rear Admiral Balch was buried with naval honors at Annapolis yesterday ——In the Federal Court at Danville yesterday there was more evidence on the part of the government against I. M. Angle, the man on trial for defrauding the government in distilling matters——Major Turner Morehead, of Greensboro, died in New York yesterday, aged sixty eight years——St. John's college shuts out North Carolina at baseball——The agricultural bill as reported to the Senate carries over $111,000,000——The first steps for the release of Harry Thaw on a writ of habeas corpus have been taken in the New York courts——The threatened trouble between Italy and Turkey has been settled and the warships of the former will not make a demonstration in the waters of the latter.

It is about time for those men who want office to be announcing themselves.

Agents will soon he around to contract for advertising space on the new style of ladies hats.

It looks like the Republican leaders of the House have gotten over their fear of the big stick.

The commander-in-chief came out of the naval fight with a loss of two battleships.

When our baseball season opens it will be necessary to bar the "Merry Widow" hat from the grand stand.

About the only new idea politically that Mr. Roosevelt has not applied the big stick to is the third term one.

It looks like old man Horne is going to get there without near as much blowing of his own horn as is considered necessary by his two opponents.

"Nature abhors a vocuum." What a hole there will be to fill in the war department building when Mr. Taft vacates it after the Chicago convention.

Why should man who considers himself so superior to all other animals feel complimented when told that he has horse-sense or dog-faithfulness?

Things have quieted down in Democratic circles in the Fifth. Brother Holt must have come to the conclusion that he had been handling a boomerang bustead of an javelin.

What is the difference? If Congress appropriated all the money Mr. Roosevelt wants for battleships there would be none left for public buildings. So the thing is about as broad as it is long.

Mr. W. W. Kitchin was the first one to start that ball rolling and he seems to be the first one to get tired of pushing it along. There, apparently was too much back action in the movement to suit him.

If Charlotte does not make more successful effort to keep up with Greensboro in the matter of presenting candidates people will begin to think that she is not so much bigger than the other city as she thinks she is.

We are surprised to know that a clam is not a wild animal. This announcement has been judicially made by a State supreme court. As it was not a decision by a federal court judge improperly appealed to by a foreign corporation we suppose all the brethren will acquisce in the decision.

If Senator Foraker could convince the white people of the South that he was sincere in his defence of the twenty-fifth regiment negroes rather than acting through malice toward certain prominent men of his own party he would be held in greater respect by the men of this section of the country.

FROM [illegible] FIELDS

SEASON ABOUT AT HEIGHT

Fruit and Produce Travelers to Hold Annual Meeting and Banquet at Chadbourn Saturday Night —Other Notes.

Forty-three solid refrigerator cars of strawberries, representing shipments loaded on Saturday throughout the trucking belt, passed through the junction office at South Rocky Mount on Sunday and this record is believed to have been exceeded yesterday and will be included in the report from Rocky Mount tonight.

With Sunday intervening only two solid cars were handled through Rocky Mount yesterday, one each going to Scranton and Boston. Before the end of the week, if the weather continues favorable, it is expected that the carload shipment daily will exceed 100 cars. These figures are exclusive of Express shipments, of course. Of the 43 cars loaded in the belt Saturday and reported from Rocky Mount Sunday, ten went to New York, 13 to Boston, five each to Philadelphia and Pittsburg, three to Buffalo and one each to Springfield, Mass., North Adams, Utica, Syracuse and Cleveland, Ohio. The Express shipments for the day were 575 crates, these going principally to New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington and other points. The prices are said to have been some better yesterday with the better quality of the fruit.

The recurrence of the berry each season brings to this section of the State hundreds of produce commission men, who formed in this city some eight or ten years ago, the American Fruit and Produce Travelers' Association, composed of the leading fruit and produce travelers from Maine to Mexico. The annual meeting of the Association will be held on Saturday night at Chadbourn where a majority of the members are now stopping for their respectivce houses. The meeting will be followed by a banquet and the fruit and produce men from all over the belt will assemble there to enjoy the annual event. The meeting and banquet will be held in Bailey's Hall and covers will be laid for something over a hundred. The officers of the Association this year are as follows:

President—J. J. Parish, of A. F. Young & Co., New York.

Vice President—E. A. Eames, of Almeda, Eames & Co., Boston.

Secretary and Treasurer—E. K. Wetherill, of Barker & Co., Newark, N. J.

Sergeant-at-Arms—E. F. Rickley, of J. P. Sauer & Co., New York.

The traveling men are looking forward to the event with much pleasure and those from the Wilmington and Weldon and Atlantic and Yadkin sections will come to Wilmington Saturday morning in order to leave in the afternoon for Chadbourn. Several from this city will attend.

An Easter Family Reunion.

Yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer says: "Mr. A. C. Worth, of New Jersey (whose wife was the late Miss Elizabeth Anderson, of this city) and his ten children and two daughters-in-law, arrived in the city Saturday to spend Easter and all received a warm welcome from their many relatives and friends here. The party consisted of the following: Mr. A. C. Worth, Mr. A. C. Worth, Jr., Mr. Geo. French Worth, Mr. Browning Worth, Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Worth, Mr. Fred C. Worth, Misses Eunice and Margaret Worth, and Mrs. Walter Stillman, all of New Jersey; and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Worth, of Petersburg, Va."

Druids to Go On Pilgrimage.

Linden Grove No. 2, United Ancient Order of Druids, is anticipating with much pleasure its annual pilgrimage to Sunny Point, the beautiful home of Mr. Oscar Sorensen, down the river. The trip will be made May 3rd and a committee composed of Messrs. A. J. Marshall, George Zeigler and W. D. Pugh, is making all arrangements.

SESSION OF POLICE COURT

The Mayor had rather an imposing array of defendants before him in the police court yesterday, the dependants representing the Saturday afternoon and night harvest of evil-doers. In addition to the cases tried there were several continuances.

Tom Williams, colored, for being drunk and disorderly was given 30 days on the roads and for cursing and abusing Officer W. R. Appleberry, who made the arrest, he was given an additional 30 days on the rock pile. Sergeant E. J. Grimsley appeared as the State's witness against Jim Spencer, a bad negro, and three colored women who were raising a merry disturbance in an alley on Fifth, between Queen and Wooster, Sunday morning just before day. Spencer was fined $10 and costs and Mary Rhodes, colored, was given 30 days on the farm. The other two women, Callie Hall and Fannie Baker, were found not guilty and discharged.

Alphonso Roberson and Hattie Pearsall, colored, were charged with an affray by Officer D. W. Willis, who picked them up Saturday night near Front and Dock streets. The woman was the aggressor and was given 30 days on the farm. "Fonzie," as he is familiarly known in police circles, was let off with the costs. The other cases yesterday were of the usual order of drunkenness and disorderly conduct and the defendants were either fined, let off with the costs or put under probation. Among the probationists were Ephraim Dale, J. F. Green and Stacy Arnold, all white and charged with being drunk and down. Burt Green, colored, who has a reputation that savors of anything but attar of roses, was charged with carrying a concealed weapon, but his case was continued for witnesses to prove that he "had just bought" the pistol which was found on his person.

Shortly before court met Officer Leon George arrested at foot of Princess street Robert Bolton, another negro of bad reputation, charged with highway robbery at Hilton Park Saturday afternoon. His case was not called until another negro, Tom Wells, could be arrested for implication in the same affair. Wells was sent in during the afternoon by Officer Frank George and the case will be called today. J. S. Moore, a country negro who works at the Almont guano factory, said that he was coming along the road through Hilton Saturday afternoon with a woman named Laura Hill. Bolton and Wells came up from the bushes toward the river and held them up with a pistol, while one of the number searched the two of them for money, but found none. Wells and Bolton deny any knowledge of the hold-up but they are fully identified by the victims of the would-be robbery.

PROHIBITION SERMON.

Rev. Fred D. Hale, D. D., Heard by Large Congregation Sunday.

"The Present Status of the Prohibition Fight" was the subject of a particularly strong sermon by the Rev. Fred D. Hale, D. D., at the First Baptist Church Sunday night. The congregation was large and Dr. Hale was heard with great interest. He defined the status of the church member in the fight and spoke of the call which came in the election to every Christian.

Dr. Hale is quoted as having said that while he was not in politics that he would be heard from in the next municipal election. He said that when prohibition went into effect, officers should be elected who would see that the law is strictly enforced. Dr. Hale announced that Governor Glenn would speak at Sixth and Market streets Wednesday evening and that the prayer meeting service would be held earlier in order that all may have an opportunity of hearing him. The lecture room of the church has also been tendered to Mrs. Nannie Curtis, the National Organizer of the W. C. T. U., who will speak on Saturday night.

Italians Make Fine Music.

The Italian Band of the St. Helena Colony of the Carolina Trucking Development Company, near Burgaw, arrived in the city yesterday on the morning train and gave several open-air concerts down town during the early afternoon, the music having been heard and enjoyed by large crowds. In the afternoon the band was the guest of the Tidewater Power Company for a delightful trip to the beach where still another concert was given. The musicians returned to their homes on the evening train. They are fine musicians, well-behaved and gentlemanly appearing folks. Wilmington was delighted to have had a visit from them.

Mrs. Iola Scherer Dead.

Friends will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Iola Scherer, wife of Mr. Chas. E. Scherer, a well known grocer, which occurred last night at 7:15 o'clock at the family home, 1020 North Eighth street, in the 38th year of her age. She is survived by her husband and seven children, ranging in age from two to ten years. They have the sympathy of all in the bereavement that is theirs. The funeral will be conducted at 4 o'clock this afternoon from the residence and the interment will be in Bellevue cemetery.

RACE AFTER A THIEF

Car Breaker Run Down by Constable Savage After Lively Hurdle Race Yesterday.

HE HAD BEEN WOUNDED

Offered Shoes For Sale in Cape Fear Township That Had Been Stolen From Railroad Company—Now in Jail.

Mitchell Armstrong, a negro 24 or 25 years of age, claiming Ashton, Pender county, as his home, was captured yesterday morning by Constable W. B. Savage, after an exciting hurdle race over back fences, chicken coops, barbed wire obstructions and other obstacles in the northern part of the city.

Armstrong was wanted for the larceny of shoes and had previously given Mr. Herbert Johnson, of Cape Fear township, a lively chase during which the thief was shot in the shoulder, dropping the stolen goods in a swamp through which he disappeared. The shoes belonged to Messrs. Peterson & Rulfs, of this city, and had been stolen in transit, most probably from a box car of the Atlantic Coast Line.

Yesterday morning the negro appeared at Mr. Herbert Johnson's place in Cape Fear township and offered for sale ten pair of Stetson shoes for $13 Mr. Johnson knew that Peterson & Rulfs were agents for the Stetson shoe in Wilmington and detained the negro until he had gotten a telephone message to the store in the city. Mr. W. C. Peterson at once communicated with Constable Savage, informing him that the shoes were his and were worth $5.50 per pair. Through Mr. Savage he asked Mr. Johnson to arrarrest and hold the negro until they could get out there. Mr. Peterson and the Constable at once made ready to go out and news came that the negro had run from Mr. Johnson and escaped in the swamp near the house, not, however, until Mr. Johnson had fired at him with his pistol. The negro dropped the shoes in the swamp and they were recovered by Mr. Johnson. On their way out to Cape Fear township Constable Savage and Mr. Peterson at Sixth and Nixon streets found the negro riding in the city on a country cart. One of the negroes on the cart called to Mr. Savage as they passed and told him that there was the man wanted. Armstrong immediately jumped off the vehicle and ran down the street, turning into an alley and then taking back fences and hen coops in steeplechase fashion. But Officer Savage was something of a hurdler himself and soon overtook the negro, discovering that the prisoner was shot in the shoulder. Armstrong was identified by Mr. Johnson as the negro who offered the shoes for sale and the one who had just given him a chase down to the swamp. Mr. Peterson fully indentified the shoes as a case that had been checked short on the railroad bill of lading when the freight was turned over to the store. Armstrong was brought back to the city and placed in jail after which he was sent to the hospital. The bullet was not extracted yesterday, but the patient will be returned to the hospital today and an effort will be made to extract it. The wound is not serious.

Armstrong claims that the shoes were given to him to sell at Castle Haynes yesterday morning but he doesn't remember anything about the negro who gave them to him. He also said he was night fireman at a shingle mill at Castle Haynes, but the men at the mill where he said he was employed, say that they have no night fireman. Armstrong will be given preliminary trial before Justice Furlong at noon today.

HANDSOME CLUB QUARTERS

Owls Have Prettiest Home in the City. A Smoker.

The Order of Owls in this city yesterday moved into its handsome club quarters on the second and third floors of the Woolvin building, on Princess street. Handsome furniture has been installed by the Owls and everything is as neat and as cosy as the most exacting could wish. In the rear is a roof garden that will be attractively fitted up for the Summer enjoyment of members.

Last night in honor of moving into the club rooms a "house warming" or smoker was enjoyed. There were many members in attendance and the affair was quite an elegant one. Informal talks were made by a number, all congratulatory upon the acquisition of such a delightful place as headquarters.

Meetings at the Tabernacle.

The series of revival meetings being conducted by Judge C. A. Erwin, the pastor, at the Tabernacle Church, Seventh and Orange streets, will continue through this week and the public is most cordially invited. The series of sermons last week attracted unusual attention and there were large congregations at each service. It is expected that the same will be true this week and all are invited to come out and hear the music and the splendid sermons that are being preached.

A GLORIOUS EASTER DAY

Sunday Typical of Spring and Large Congregations Attended Church Services—Carols From Tower of St. James.

A more beautiful Easter Day could not have been imagined than Sunday in Wilmington. From a perfectly clear sky the sun shone brightly all day and the atmosphere was balmy and pleasant, typical of Spring and suggestive of the glory of a perfect Easter. The observance of the day was quite general in Wilmington. All the churches, irrespective of those who scrupulously observe Lent, held services appropriate to the day and large congregations were the order everywhere.

At St. James the observance began with the children's carol service from the tower of the church at sunrise. This service, as it always is, was pretty and attracted the attention of the entire city. The carols were sweetly sung with cornet accompaniment by Mr. E. C. Craft. Holy Communion was celebrated at 7:45 with Morning Prayer, Holy Communion and sermon at 11 o'clock. At 5 o'clock the Children's Sunday School service was held and was attended by a very large gathering. For this as well as the other services during the day there was a special programme of music by the choir of St. James under the direction of Mr. E. H. Munson, organist. At the children's service the little folks brought forward their mite boxes and a neat sum of money was realized. There was also a splendid address by the rector, the Rev. R. W. Hogue. A feature of the service was the reading of the punctuality roll, presentation of star and certificates. Those who were honored with position on the punctuality roll were Edward C. Ashe, Francis Bailey, Esse E. Harriss, Eleanor J. Harris, Julian LeGrand, Edward D. Sloan, Elizabeth Sloan, Catherine D. Williams and John S. Cranmer. John Laurens Wright is the crucifier.

The Easter services at St. John's and at the Church of the Good Shepherd were notable for confirmations by Bishop Strange. At 11 o'clock in the morning the Bishop confirmed a class of eleven at St. John's and in the evening a class of 12 at the Church of the Good Shepherd. At St. Paul's Episcopal Church the services were very pretty and appropriate, Rev. A. W. Seabrease, the rector, officiating.

At St. Paul's and St. Matthew's Lutheran churches the services were very pretty, the children at the latter having brought flowers to cover a large rustic cross that had been placed in the pulpit during the week to illustrate the lessons of Holy Week. At St. Thomas' Catholic Church, the services were very solemn and impressive and were attended by large congregations.

SUNDAY DOWN THE RIVER

Pleasure Seekers Had Delightful Day on Water and at Beach.

Large crowds of pleasure seekers went down the river on the two trips of the steamer Wilmington Sunday and enjoyed a delightful day. Many stopped at Carolina Beach and had the pleasure of a dip in the surf and a breath of the fine ocean air. The trips on the steamer are delightful at this season of the year and from present indications the Wilmington and Carolina Beach will be more popular than ever this year. A number of improvements are being made at the beach and the young people are looking forward with pleasure to the dances there during the Summer and the usual Sunday afternoon concerts and other amusements that will be provided.

NEW PYTHIAN LODGE.

Exercises of Institution Will Begin This Evening.

The ceremonies of the institution of the new Knights of Pythias lodge in Wilmington by State Deputy Grand Chancellor J. D. Nutt, will begin this evening at 8 o'clock in Pythian Castle Hall, third floor of the Murchison National Bank building. The State deputy will be at the hall half an hour earlier for a conference with any of the "tyros," who may desire to speak with him. The institution of the new lodge will be by a select team and the exercises promise to be quite interesting for all who attend. Pythians of all lodges, as well as visiting brethren are cordially invited. As before stated, the members of the new lodge are from Delgado and the lodge will probably be Delgado No. 195.

Cutter on Emergency Call.

While lying at her wharf Sunday evening the United States Revenue Cutter Seminole, Captain J. H. Quinan, received an emergency call by wireless and after coaling as rapidly as possible proceeded yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock to Ocracoke, N. C. None of the private tow boat owners were advised of any distress to shipping off coast and nothing was given out from the cutter as to the object of her visit.

Their Infant Dead

The many friends of Sheriff and Mrs. W. R. Atkinson, of Burgaw, N. C., will deeply sympathize with them in the death of their infant son, Robert Glenn, which occurred at their home yesterday morning. The interment will be made this afternoon at the family burying ground at Edgecombe, N. C.

AFFAIRS IN RALEIGH

United Labor Organizations are Called to Meet in State Convention at Raleigh.

THE GRAND LODGE TEMPLE

More Funds Are Needed—Charter to Tar River Gun Club—Easter Day at State Capital—Other News Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 20.—Politicians hereabouts are awaiting with considerable interest the result of a call that has been issued by the united labor organizations of Salisbury for a State convention of labor unions to be held in Raleigh April 27th for the purpose of taking political action relative to the pending campaign.

It was only a few weeks ago that President J. T. Miller, of the State Federation, declared that there would be no political convention of the unions and that no candidates for any office would be endorsed or "blacklisted" by any labor union with the sanction of the State organization. However the call for the State convention was published in the last issue of the State labor union organ at Greensboro. The presumption is that in the light of the position declared by President Miller it will be measures and not men that wil be considered is the convention materializes.

In an urgent appeal to the Masons of the State by the North Carolina Masonic Temple Building Committee, it is declared that the work on the temple here is progressing nicely but that funds are badly needed to push the building to rapid completion and that immediate and hearty support by North Carolina Masonry is imperative. The appeal points out that the temple represents a home for the Grand Lodge, a home for aged and indigent brethren in that the revenue from rentals will go to the establishment and support of such an institution, and that it further represents a forward movement for Masonry in North Carolina.

A charter is issued for the Tar River Gun Club, of Tarboro, there being no capital stock. The purpose is to maintain hunting and fishing grounds a few miles out from Tarboro. The incorporators are W. H. Powell, W. H. McNair, J. M. Dixon, P. A. Lewis and C. A. Whitehead.

Easter Day and Easter Monday came in for the usual observation in Raleigh under well nigh ideal weather conditions. Special Easter music at all the principal churches was of an especially high order. In the afternoon there was a special service of Easter music at the First Baptist church, "Victory Divine" the sacred cantata by J. Christopher Marks, being rendered by the best music talent of the city under the direction of Wade R. Brown, dean of music at the Baptist University for Women.

COLLINS IS BOUND OVER.

Charges of Cruelty to Animals and Assault With Deadly Weapon.

J. W. Collins, a well known white resident, was before Justice Furlong yesterday on a charge of an assault with a deadly weapon upon Ernest Steenken, white, who remonstrated with him last Friday afternoon about overloading and beating a mule to which the defendant was driving to a lumber wagon. Mr. Collins was represented by Herbert McClammy, Esq., and Mr. Steenken by Walter P. Gafford, Esq. The weapon used upon the prosecutor was the butt of a teamster's whip, which was held to be a deadly weapon. The defendant was held in the sum of $25 to answer the two charges of an assault and cruelty to animals at the next term of Superior Court in July. He deposited $25 cash bond in each case.

A SURPRISE WEDDING.

Popular and Well Known Traveling Man Claims a Bride.

Mr. Stanley A. Morsbach, a well known young traveling man, and a frequent visitor to this city, was yesterday married to Miss Lois Brown, a niece of the late Senator Latimer, at her home in Belton, S. C. The wedding was to take place on the 29th of this month, but Mr. Morsbach being on a trip South, "stole a march on his friends" and surprised them with the announcement above. They will make their home in Cincinnati, where the groom is associated with his father in wholesale harness and saddlery. Mr. Morsbach has visited Messrs. A. J. and J. S. Mitchell here, and has many friends in the city who will wish him and his friend a long, happy and prosperous married life.

Tragedy at Hope Mills, N. C.

The Fayetteville Observer of yesterday afternoon says: "There was a horrible tragedy at Hope Mills this morning. About breakfast time, the eight-year-old daughter of Mr. John Dees, a well known cotton mill operative of that place, picked up a can of oil and started to pour some in a hot stove. The oil exploded in the can, with the result that the little girl was so dreadfully burned and mangled that the attending physicians say she cannot live."

THE TWO-THIRDS RULE.

In the Democratic National convention there will be 1,002 delegates and as the rules of the party require a two-thirds vote to make a nomination, it will take 668 votes to nominate a candidate for President. That means that if 335 delegates to that convention oppose Mr. Bryan's nomination, he cannot be successful. Mr. Bryan, so far has 148 votes instructed for him, but there are many other States yet to hold their conventions where either the people or the party leaders and manipulators are in favor of him. The question is, can he get enough votes from these States to make up the required number. It is doubtful if he can. The States which have held conventions and not instructed for Mr. Bryan are Deleware, which has instructed for Judge Gray, and New York and Rhode Island, whose delegates go uninstructed. The States not yet holding their Democratic conventions which will send uninstructed or anti-Bryan delegations will have a representation of 296 votes. Those States in which the question of supporting Mr. Bryan is in doubt have a representation of 200 votes.

These figures indicate that a majority of the delegates to the convention will go uninstructed and with minds not made up as to whom the nominee should be.

If these figures be correct, there is a strong possibility, if not a great probability that Mr. Bryan cannot secure the nomination on the two-thirds rule which governs the proceedings as to nominating a candidate in the Democratic National convention. It looks likely the two-thirds rule will defeat Mr. Bryan.

That Mr. Bryan and his friends are afraid of the two-thirds rule is shown by the editorial announcement in leading Democratic papers that Senator Stone, of Missouri, a pronounced Bryan man, will lead an effort at the Denver convention to do away with that rule. It is to Mr. Bryan's interests that such movement be successful. Unless it is there is doubt as to his being able to secure the nomination.

While we think the two-thirds rule in any Democratic convention is against the fundamental principle of the party, which is that the majority should rule in all matters of party government or popular elections, and while we have all along thought the two-thirds rule in the Democratic convention was wrong, we hold that this fundamental rule of the party which has controlled the action of the party in its national conventions since its existence should not be changed without due and timely notice to the rank and file of that party. The party in many States has already appointed its delegates to the National convention under the old rule and all others will be appointed under the existing rule before an effort can be made to change it. It would be an injustice to these delegates and to the friends of all opposing candidates—a species of snap judgment—to change the rule at the approaching convention, especially if it were done in order to secure the nomination of a man who could not secure the nomination under the old rule, but stood a better chance of it under the proposed new one.

Are the long established rules of the party conventions to be materially changed for the sole purpose of increasing the chances of nomination of a man whom a great many Democrats consider an unavailable candidate and one whom they believe if nominated, would surely be defeated in this presidential year when the party stands a better showing for success than since Mr. Cleveland's last election?

This new move indicates that all the Bryan men desire is that man's nomination, regardless of what his chances for election would be.

If the Democratic National party thinks the two-thirds rule is wrong—and we as members of that party do think it so—it should, in the approaching convention abrogate it as applying to future conventions and let its action be ratified by the party for future conduct of its conventions. The people want no snap judgment.

The Greensboro Record thinks Mr. Ashley Horne should be about the happiest man in the State, "for," it says, "things are coming his way." It does look so.

WILMINGTON AS COTTON EXPORT POINT.

If Wilmington has done the biggest cotton business this year in her whole history, why can't she do still better next year and beat the record of the present year? Her enormous receipts and exports this year show that she does not depend on general increase throughout the country in this business for her larger figures. On the contrary, a comparative statement of the Southern ports shows that our city has this year increased her cotton business at the expense of her sister seaports. At some ports the receipts have fallen off; at none have they increased over past records in the same proportion as have those of Wilmington.

That our city's business in this line has so greatly increased in a year of a smaller crop over that of previous years when the crop was larger, shows that our port as a cotton exporting point is gaining ground and increasing in reputation among the cotton men of the world.

It shows another thing—that the local men engaged in this business are progressive men, alive to their own interests and to those of the port and that they are exerting themselves to push our city to the forefront in one of the most important commercial industries of the South.

We look for next year to bring our city into still greater prominence as a leading cotton exporting point. She now stands fifth in the line, with Norfolk only a very little in the lead. Should the same increase be made next year as was in this one we may expect to surpass our Virginia neighbor. We look upon this as a certainty unless some unforeseen drawback is experienced.

This increased importance of our city as a cotton shipping port is bound to be of advantage to her in other lines of ocean trade. Wherever American cotton is received in foreign countries for manufacture Wilmington is known and is each year becoming better known as one of the leading exports of the United States and this will naturally draw to her port more traffic in other articles of export and import. Our cotton exporting business necessarily advertises our port all over the world—in every country where there is a cotton factory.

Senator Overman's bill, which passed the Senate without any real opposition, which requires that an injunction proceeding in a Federal court to suspend the operation of a State law, shall be heard by three judges, will do much to allay the hostile feeling of the people against the issuance of such injunctions by Federal court judges granted on petition and without hearing to the other side. The bill, no doubt, will also pass the House and become a law.

The Star takes pleasure in announcing the appointment of Mr. Samuel T. Ashe to a position on its editorial staff. Mr. Ashe's recognized ability and his thorough acquaintance with North Carolina affairs, both commercial and political, give him special fitness for the work he has undertaken, and which we doubt not will be appreciated by our readers.

A Lumberton man writing to the Greensboro Telegram says there seems to be a number of candidates for every honor which the Democratic State convention can bestow, except delegates-at-large to the National convention. We wish the Telegram's correspondent would tell us who are of the candidates for the nomination for Lieutenant Governor. We have not heard that there is much crowding of the lists for this position.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—The Democrats of New York State have shown their party associates throughout the country in an unmistakable way that Mr. Bryan cannot hope to carry that State. No Democrat who is acquainted with the history of his party and its present situation can fail to understand the meaning of New York's action. It means that Mr. Bryan will be defeated if he is nominated.—Washington Post.

—The unanimous tabling of the Aldrich bill by the House Committee on Currency and Banking is a milestone on the road toward sound currency reform. It indicates the formal abandonment of the Aldrich bill and is a recognition of the fact that the sentiment of the country has so far crystallized that it will not accept an emergency bond secured currency as a cure of the defects in the existing system. That is progress. The Tribune has cause to be satisfied with the result for it has earnestly opposed the Aldrich bill from the outset.—New York Tribune.

—New York, the Empire state, aspires to play a leading part at both Chicago and Denver. And yet what do we see? The Republicans would supply their party with its leader. They present in Governor Hughes a man of first-class powers, and a personal character to match. But they have put his case into the hands of men unequal to its forcible presentation. The delegation to Chicago does not show a single person who commands national influence. The delegates at large, whose duty it will be to make the "front" at Chicago, are most worthy men, and enjoy the highest respect on personal grounds, but it is quite difficult, if possible at all, to conceive of them winning a battle in a strenuous and complicated contest. The Democrats are in even a worse condition. They have nobody to present at Denver, and are going to the convention only to maneuver against Mr. Bryan. But under what sort of leadership?—Washington Star.

—Labor is going to be the judge of what is best for it in labor legislation. The critical time has arrived with the action of the present Congress on our measures. We know what to do if it fails to pass them.—Samuel Gompers. It is charged, and with some season, that capital for many years acted on that principle. It drew its own laws, or guided the pen that did draw them, notably the tariff laws, and it fattened prodigiously. Then came along the foes, or, if you please, the restrainers, of capital, successfully enforcing their judgment of what the laws ought to be. We are still in the confusion of that conflict. This is really the doctrine of help yourself. If the laws in the books don't suit you, send in your order. Congress will enact statutes to your measure, and if they don't fit at first alteration will be made. Of course, goose and gander must have the same treatment. If labor wants the boycott then railroads must have the merger. Restraint of trade by one is no less obnoxious than restraint by the other.—New York Times.

—If that had happened in the British House of Commons, which occurred in the popular branch of the United States Congress on Wednesday last, the Prime Minister and his entire Cabinet would have been forced to resign their places in government. The remarkable spectacle was presented of an open revolt by the leaders of the Republican party in the House of Representatives against the urgent recommendations of a Republican president and the defeat of the administration by the overwhelming majority of 208 to 64; and among the rebels were most of the members of what may be called the official body of the House, the Speaker and the Chairmen of the Committees on Ways and Means, Naval Affairs and the like. The development during the debate were stranger still. Mr. Willett, of New York, asserted positively that "A few days ago the President said to a committee of this House, said it in the presence of other visitors, and said it with his customary vehemence and facial contortions "Unless you give me four battleships, I will veto your public buildings appropriation," and this astounding disclosure was corroborated by Mr. Hobson who sought to extenuate its gross impropriety.—Virginian-Pilot.

BUG DEATH

One of the great growers of seed potatoes in Maine who has made a life study of Irish potatoes, has demonstrated beyond question that it is impossible to apply Paris Green to potato vines in any quantity without weakening the vitality of the tuber. Bug Death will not injure the plant but will stimulate its growth. QUESTION OF NO FENCES

Mr. B. F. Keith Writes His View of the Subject and Would Have The Legislature Pass a State Law.

(Correspondence of the Star.)

The Morning Star, City.

Dear Sir: Pardon me for calling the attention of the farmers and well wishers of the progress of our State to the importance of the stock or no fence law, as it will soon be time to begin to make selections for our representatives.

Our State will be advanced or retarded just in proportion to the class of men who we send to represent us, if we are wise in making our selection, we will prosper in proportion. If we leave this important matter to the ringsters and peanut politicians, we will suffer as we have in the past.

What we need is men who are honest and will dare to do their duty and there is nothing that they can do to advance the interest of our State more than to give us a stock or no fence law for the entire State. It is a well known fact that the scrubby cattle, and the piny woods rooter in those counties which they are permitted to run at large, do not bring in revenue enough to their owners to pay for keeping up their fences around their farms to say nothing of the timber, the young forest that is destroyed, besides when they are ready to fatten it is worth one of them to get it so it can be put upon the market, then they bring the lowest price.

You will not find any milk and butter in the territory where the stock is permitted to run at large and with few exceptions you will find that the so-called farmers rarely make enough meat for their own use, while you will find in the section where they have stock law, almost every farmer with his one or two selected cows, well supplied with milk and butter, his hogs in his pasture or lot keeping fat on as little as it would take to keep them from dying if they were allowed to run in the woods. The former without disease the latter the distributors of disease, destroying his neighbors stock without reward or profit to his owner.

One of the greatest draw-backs we are confronted with to day is securing immigrants from the Northwest in our present mode of letting our stock run at large. I have had some of the best farmers to say that they would not have a farm at any price where the stock is permitted to run at large as the expense of keeping up his fences and waste of timber with his stock liable to catch disease from those running at large made the expense too great for farming to be profitable. It is only an imaginary evil in the thoughts of those who think it would work a hardship upon the poor man to prove this let any of those who doubt it go into a territory where they have the stock law and see if they can find any one who would go back to the old style of letting the stock run at large and I am sure they will be convinced that it is all imagination when they thoroughly investigate for themselves.

If we are given the no-fence law in ten years you will see all of our waste places in the sandy belt of our State with a growth of long leaf pine that will be capable of producing turpentine and rosin by the patent box system that would bring the owners more revenue each year than the land would bring today upon the market, besides it will restore our seasons which are becoming a serious problem owing to the fact that it is either too wet or too dry, caused by destruction of the forest by careless timbermen, often followed by fire for the benefit of a few cattle that are not worth what is destroyed by such abuse on a few acres of land, then comes the piny woods rooter to nip in the bud as well as root up and eat the tap root of the young pine which completely destroys it.

As it is at present those counties that have the no fence law are discriminated against and are put to expense to keep up the fence between adjoining counties and if they wish to ship out any beef cattle they have to over come opposition because they come from a section where the stock is permitted to run at large and to avoid this discrimination it is to every county's interest in the State to work for a general no-fence law throughout the entire length and breadth of North Carolina.

Respectfully,
B. F. KEITH.

KILLS HIS SISTER

Fired Shotgun At Her As She Was Making Up A Bed.

(Special to the Baltimore Sun.)

Winston-Salem, N. C., April 19.—Oscar Tuttle, 22 years old, today shot and killed his sister Nellie, aged 28 years.

The young man, who lives with his father, near Germantown, Stokes county, secured a shotgun belonging to his brother, and entering the room where his sister was engaged in making up a bed, fired upon her without warning, the entire load taking effect in the girl's hip. Miss Tuttle died instantly, falling across the bed which she had been preparing. The father, John Tuttle, heard the shot and rushed into the house, finding his daughter lying dead in a pool of blood. The screams of the old man brought neighbors into the house.

Sheriff Peters, who resides two miles away, was summoned. Oscar was arrested and locked up. He will be taken to jail tomorrow morning. The young man at first confessed to the murder of his sister, but refused to explain why he did it. Later he attempted to cast blame upon his brother John. It is positively known, however, that John was several miles away at the time of the shooting. Oscar Tuttle has always been regarded as eccentric, and it is believed his mind is unbalanced.

FOUGHT IN JUSTICE'S OFFICE.

Litigants Before Magistrate Went at It Hammer and Tongs.

In Justice Bornemann's court yesterday J. P. Hill and Marion Williams warranted William Haefner for an alleged indebtedness of $13.50 for some painting they claimed they had done. Haefner set up a counter-claim of $10 for board against Williams and Justice Bornemann gave judgment for the remainder. Later Williams and Haefner met on the street and had a fight. Williams came back in the office to submit for the offense but Justice Bornemann would not take the submission without Haefner. Constable Savage was sent out for Haefner but no sooner had he reached the court room and spied Williams than he went for him in regular hammer and tongs style. The combatants were separated, after which the trial proceeded. Williams was let off with the costs, but Haefner was taxed with $5 and costs in default of which he went to jail.

MR. S. L. FREMONT DEAD

End Came Suddenly in Charleston, W. Va.—Remains Here.

A telegram received by a friend in this city Sunday conveyed the sad intelligence of the death of Mr. Sewall Lawrence Fremont, which occurred rather suddenly Saturday night at his home in Charleston, W. Va., where he had been a resident for some time. Mr. Fremont was a former resident of this city and was a son of the late Colonel S. L. Fremont, for many years general superintendent of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad. Since leaving Wilmington Mr. Fremont had lived principally in Georgia, but had for some time past been in Charleston, W. Va., where he was manager of the supply department of the Southern Bell Telephone Company. He was a man of high ideals and strong character. Many will learn of his death with a sense of personal loss. The remains of the late Mr. Fremont arrived last evening on the Atlantic Coast Line train from the North and were taken to St. John's Episcopal Church of which his father was for a long time senior warden. Accompanying the remains were Mrs. Fremont and Mr. Fremont's sister, Mrs. Mary D. Battle, and her two daughters of New York. They were met at the station by Bishop Strange, Rev. W. E. Cox, Dr. Jas. Carmichael, Captain T. D. Meares, Mr. H. G. Smallbones, Mr. Jos. H. Watters, and other friends. The funeral services this morning will be by Dr. Carmichael and Bishop Strange.

BIG BENEFIT AT BIJOU.

Fire Laddies Want Gymnasium at Central Fire Station.

The clever proprietors of the Bijou, the popular moving picture theatre on North Front street, have done the handsome thing by offering their theatre on Friday afternoon and evening for a big benefit which will be given for the fire laddies of the central fire station, who are just now engaged in the commendable work of fitting up a gymnasium at their headquarters. There will be special features for the occasion and the firemen are now interesting their friends—and that means the whole city—in the affair. Mr. Henry W. Angel has kindly consented to go on for the afternoon and evening and his famous dissertation on prohibition, non-partisan and humorous to a degree seldom attained with a local hit, will be given. Messrs. Howard & Wells have placed an order for a special film for the occasion and the house promises to be crowded at each performance.

THE KING STOCK COMPANY.

"The Shadow" Will be the Bill This Evening—Special Courtesy.

The King Stock Company, favorably remembered from earlier in the season, opened a return engagement at the Academy of Music last night, cleverly presenting "In Old Virginia" a play which gave opportunity for the full measure of the company's strength. The audience, which was large, was well satisfied with the production.

The offering tonight will be "The Shadow," in which Mr. King will be seen in the leading role and in which he is pleasantly remembered from last time. Between acts select vaudeville is offered and the engagement of the company this week promises to be in every way successful. As a special courtesy to the ladies, every purchaser of a ticket at the box office at Plummer's between 12 and 2 o'clock today will be given a lady's ticket free.

At Boston last night Harry Lewis, of Philadelphia, knocked out "Honey" Mellody of Charleston, in the fourth round of what was to have been a 12 round bout at the Armory Athletic Association. Lewis scored a knockdown in the first round, and in point of cleverness outclassed Mellody. The Philadelphian used a left jab to the face continually and Mellody could not get at him.

FOR THAW'S RELEASE.

The First Steps in Habeas Corpus Writ Taken.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., April 20.—The first step in proceedings looking to the release of Harry K. Thaw from the State asylum for the insane at Matteawan was taken today. James G. Graham, of Newberg, formerly secretary to Governor Odell, appeared as Thaw's counsel before Justice Morschauser of the New York State Supreme court at White Plains and applied for an order directing the superintendent of the asylum to permit Thaw to sign an application for a writ of habeas corpus. The order was promptly issued and it will probably be served upon the acting superintendent of the asylum at once. According to the usual procedure in such cases, Thaw will sign the application for a writ of habeas corpus, which will then be submitted to a justice of the Supreme Court, probably Justice Morschauser. Such writs are always granted and the date when the writ is returnable is fixed to suit the convenience of all parties concerned. Then Thaw will appear before a justice of the Supreme Court for a hearing to determine whether he should be released from the asylum as sane. Probably this hearing will be held before Justice Morschauser at Poughkeepsie.

This method of obtaining the release of a prisoner at the State asylum is usually taken when the State lunacy commission is unwilling to declare that the prisoner is sane.

DEATH OF MAJOR MOREHEAD.

Major Turner Morehead Dies in New York at Advanced Age.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

Danville, Va., April 20.—Major Turner Morehead, a pioneer cotton mill, woolen mill and railroad magnate of North Carolina, died today after an illness of several weeks, in New York, where he recently made his home. He was 68 years old and a Confederate veteran. He was the founder of the cotton and wool industries at Leaksville and Spray, N. C., and was instrumental in organizing the Danville & Western Railway. Major Morehead was the son of former Governor Morehead of North Carolina. He leaves a wife and four children.

The annual banquet of the Utica Chamber of Commerce last night was largely attended by the business men of the city and vicinity. The guest of honor was George B. Cortelyou secretary of the treasury. He was greeted with cheers when he arose to speak on "Business and Citizenship."

SKIN ON FIRE—AGONY UNBEARABLE.

Terrible Itching Burning Skin Disease Now Quickly Cured.

A purely vegetable external remedy that has been proved beyond all possible doubt to cure the worst cases of Eczema and all skin diseases can now be procured by all skin sufferers. This remarkable remedy is D. D. D. Prescription, the discovery of Dr. Decatur D. Dennis, the well known skin specialist, and is being manufactured by the D. D. D. Co., 112 Michigan St. Chicago, Ill. The demand for this remedy has become tremendous within a short time because people are just learning that the hundreds of cures it has made seem to be permanent.

Eczema and all diseases of the skin must be treated locally, according to the views now held by foremost skin specialists and physicians; that is, you must doctor the itch where the itch is. It is useless to attempt to cure skin disease by taking drugs and medicines into the stomach. The disease is not in the blood. It is in the skin and only skin deep. You must get at the seat of the disease and kill the germ by making direct applications to the skin.

Mrs. L. B. Powell, Box 414, Caruthersville, Mo., writes: "Words cannot convey my full appreciation of D. D. D. Prescription. The face of my baby boy was a solid scab, when I accidentally heard of D. D. D. I secured a bottle at once and began to apply it. It was miraculous in its cure. It healed my baby's face completely. If anyone wants further information about this I shall be only too glad to hear from them."

Testimonials of hundreds of cases of remarkable cures by D. D. D. Prescription and an interesting booklet on skin disease and its treatment, exercise, diet, bathing, etc., may be had free by calling on Robt. R. Bellamy, Wilmington, N. C., where D. D. D. Prescription and D. D. D. Soap will be found on sale.

SEVERE COLLISION.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

New York, April 20.—A four car motor train on the Bath Beach Line of the Brooklyn Elevated system, ran down a surface trolley car at the junction of Eighty-sixth street and Bay Nineteenth street, Bath Beach tonight. Several of the trolley's passengers were seriously injured and one of them, Mrs. Alice Hughes, 23 years old, will probably die.

At the point where the accident occurred the motor trains run upon the surface and the trolley car was crossing the train tracks at right angles. It is claimed that the motor train had the right of way and that the signal was set against the trolley car.

The forward car of the train struck the trolley broadside, carrying it from its trucks and throwing it over upon its side. With the collision the motor car rebounded and then fell across the wrecked trolley, pinioning the passengers in the wreckage. The motor car also took fire. Mrs. Hughes was so caught that she could not be released until the car was jacked up.

Her skull was fractured and she was injured internally. Ten others were seriously hurt. Their injuries consisted of broken ribs, broken legs, internal wounds or severe bodily bruises.

FINANCES ALL AT SEA

House Committee on Finance Votes to Lay on the Table the Vreeland Substitute for the Aldrich Bill.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

Washington, April 20.—The House committee on banking and currency today voted to lay on the table the financial bill offered by Representative Edward B. Vreeland, of New York, as a substitute for the Aldrich bill and decided to report favorably the bill recently introduced by Chairman Fowler, providing for a currency commission to consist of 43 members, 11 members of the Senate, 11 members of the House and 21 others, who must be citizens of the United States.

The action of the committee was taken late in the afternoon after a meeting lasting all day. Representative Vreeland appeared before the committee and made a long argument in favor of his bill.

Representative Ebenezer J. Hill, of Connecticut, replied to Mr. Vreeland, severely criticising his measure which, he said, was the Aldrich bill pure and simple with two sections omitted.

The committee then went into executive session to consider the measure.

As in the case of the Aldrich bill the committee decided to give no reason to the House for its action.

The motion for the Fowler currency bill was adopted 10 to 3.

WARM WIRELETS.

Two trains from Ballarat and Bendigo respectively, in Australia collided late Sunday night. Forty one persons were killed and sixty injured. The Bendigo train with two heavy engines crashed into the rear of the Ballarat train.

With full military honors the body of the late Rear Admiral George Beall Balch, retired, who died at Raleigh, N. C., last week, was buried in the cemetery attached to the naval academy at Annapolis yesterday. The brigade of midshipmen acted as escort.

At Bernice, La., one spectator was killed and four others injured Monday during a street duel. Both duelists were wounded, but not seriously. The fight was between C. J. Morton and W. F. Barham, both prominent. The cause of their quarrel is not known.

At Danville, Va., more documentary evidence was introduced by the government yesterday in the trial of T. M. Angle, president and general manager of the Dry Fork Distilling Company, charged with extensive frauds in the manufacture and sale of unstamped whiskey.

The agricultural bill which was reported to the Senate Monday by the committee on agriculture, provides for a number of important investigations. The bill as reported to the Senate carries $11,642,146, an increase of $133,340 over the amout of the bill as it was passed by the House.

ITALY AND TURKEY

The Serious Trouble Between These Countries Settled.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Rome, April 20.—The threatened trouble between Italy and Turkey apparently has ended as a tempest in a tea pot and for the present at least there will be no demonstratin by Italian warships in Turkish waters.

Indeed it now seems likely that the incident will produce a better feeling between Constantinople and Rome, leading to an agreement by the two countries on many differences which heretofore have been the cause of not a little friction. The Turkish government has given its permission to Italy to establish postoffices in the Turkish cities where the other powers have like institutions and in like manner has met the Italian demands with regard to other questions that have been subjects of dispute.

WOOD PULP QUESTION.

Speaker Cannon's Resolution for Committee of Inquiry.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, April 20.—A definite step was taken today toward a solution of the wood pulp and newspaper cost question in the introduction by Speaker Cannon of a resolution for the appointment of a select committee of six members to investigate "and obtain all possible information as to the reasons for the increased price of white paper, "to the end that needful legislation may be enacted." The resolution was referred to the committee on rules of which the speaker is chairman.

Talked to the Wrong Man.

One day an important looking gentleman took a seat beside a quiet man in an Arkansas railway carriage and began a conversation.

"I'm going up to Little Rock," he said, "to get a pardon for a convicted thief. I'm not personally acquainted with the governor, but he can't afford to refuse me."

"Is the fellow guilty?" asked the man.

"Of course he is. But that makes no difference. His friends have agreed to give me $500 if I get him out, and the thermometer is very low when I can't put up a good talk. Where are you traveling?"

"Going to Little Rock."

"Do you live there?"

"Yes."

"Perhaps you might be of some service to me. What business are you in?"

"I am the governor."—St. Louis Republic.

A RARE BIRD.

Why an American Showman Could Not Get It For His Museum.

When the eminent French writer Ferdinand Brunetiere visited the United States some years ago, lecturing at Harvard and other leading universities, he had an amusing experience, which he described in the recollections of his American tour which he afterward published. The great litterateur devoted much attention to the life and works of Bossuet, who was often styled the "Eagle of Meaux," on account perhaps of his lofty flights of eloquence. This fact, with others pertaining to his literary career, was mentioned by some daily papers during his stay in this country. It caught the eyes of a shrewd American showman, who, however, got somewhat mixed over the meaning of the allusion. He wrote the following letter to the French author:

Sir—I have just heard that a certain Meaux eagle, very celebrated, it appears, in your country, has become your exclusive property. Now, I am the manager of a museum in one of the largest cities in the States. This Meaux eagle, whose reputation has been enhanced by your eloquence, would certainly not fail to excite the curiosity of my public. If you will let me have the rare bird and tell me how to feed it, you can quote your own figure.

Brunetiere politely explained that the "rare bird" had been dead for nearly 200 years.

The Hygiene of Underwear.

The average person wearing two sets of underclothing a week, says the Youth's Companion, will make the change in the middle of the week, but it would be far better if the two sets were kept going the entire week on alternate days. With the biweekly change, the clothes worn during the day are aired only for seven or eight hours in the twenty-four and never have the purifying process of a sunning. With two sets going on alternate days, one set can be aired two nights and one day, and, if possible, should be hung up where they can receive the direct rays of the sun for some hours. They should not be kept in a dark closet.

REACHING THE SPOT

It Can Be Done, So Scores of Wilmington Citizens Say.

To cure an aching back,
The pains of rheumatism,
The tired-out feelings,
You must reach the spot—get at the cause.
In most cases 'tis the kidneys.
Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys.

Mrs. J. A. Boykin, 514 Princess St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "For a long time I was a sufferer from backache and rheumatic twinges in my limbs. I could not stoop or life without suffering severely and in fact I was in pain all the time. Nothing that I did seemed to give me any relief. When a friend told me about Doan's Kidney Pills, I decided to try them. I procured a box from Robert R. Bellamy's drug store, and soon after taking them could see that they were doing me good. The backache and rheumatic pains entirely disappeared and I felt much better in every way. I am pleased to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to others."

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Morganton, April 18.—Complete returns today from Burke county primaries indicate that Craig will have 6 1-2 votes and Kitchin 1-2 vote in the State convention.

—Marion, April 18.—Judging from the primaries held in Marion and other precincts in the county today, Craig will get a solid delegation from McDowell. The county convention meets Monday, the 20th.

—Bryson City, April 18.—The Swain county Democratic convention, which met here today, instructed the delegates to the State convention for Mr. Locke Craig for Governor. The convention was enthusiastic and harmonious.

—Durham, April 18.—Information was given out yesterday that the anti-prohibitionists have determined to conduct the campaign in this State against prohibition through the means of bureaus, and that a canvass of the State will not be made by speakers. This plan has just been determined on, and a complete list of all voters, together with their addresses throughout the State, has been placed in the hands of the executive committee and circulars are being mailed to them.

—Statesville, April 18.—A telephone message this afternoon from Mr. J. H. Burke, chairman of the Alexander Democratic executive committee, says the Alexander Democratic county convention held at Taylorsville today gives Craig 4 1-2 votes and Horne 1-2 vote for Governor in the State convention. United States Senators Overman and Simmons were endorsed by the convention and the delegates are instructed for Hackett for Congress. There were no instructions as to State officers.

—Smithfield, April 18.—Democratic township primaries were held all over the county today. All primaries have been heard from except three. Nearly every precinct instructed unanimously for Horne for Governor and Pou for Congress. So far as can be learned there was no opposition to either Horne or Pou, and the indications are that the county convention next Saturday will send solid delegations for both. One township instructed for Lacy for State Treasurer and one township instructed for London for corporation commissioner.

—Reidsville Review: It is noticed in the daily papers that C. F. King, formerly of Rockingham, the financier, will be vindicated of the charges against him. They say that he will go back to his old offices in a few weeks, as he is in a hospital at the present and is unable to attend to his business. King has made a proposition with his creditors which will take a different turn from the one which was supposed would be taken whe he was captured. Mr. Dodge, an eminent New Yorker, says that Mr. King was caught in the financial panic and that his head went back on him and he is a nervous wreck.

—Greensboro Record: George W. Stewart, an aged white man of Reidsville, attempted to commit suicide in that place this morning by chopping himself in the head three or four times with an axe. The wounds inflicted produced paralysis and the unfortunate man's condition is thought to be critical. Mr. Stewart's mind has been affected for a good while and application was made some time ago for his admission to the insane asylum at Morganton. In the meantime he has been living at his home in Reidsville, where he committed his rash act this morning.

—Charlotte Observer: Secretary C. B. Bryant, of the American Cotton Manufacturers' Association, has received word from Secretay of War William H. Taft, prospective nominee of the Republican party for President, stating that, owing to prior engagements, he will not be able to accept the very kind invitation of the association to be present and deliver an address at the convention in Richmond, Va., next month. Immediately on the receipt of this announcement, Secretary Bryant wired Governor John A. Johnson, of Minnesota, asking him if he could not be present at the Richmond meeting and deliver an address to the cotton spinners of the country. No answer has yet been secured, but it is believed that he will accept.

—Greensboro Record: Prof. W. C. A. Hammel returned last night from Washington where he went to make an address before the Eastern Manual Training Association, which met earlier in the week at the Business High School in Washington. A Washington special has this to say of Prof. Hammel's lecture: "Prof. W. C. A. Hammel, formerly of Baltimore, now chief of the department of manual arts at the State Normal College at Greensboro, N. C., made an address this afternoon at the convention of the Eastern Manual Training Association, in session at the Business High School here. Professor Hammel told of the work at Greensboro, which is on a new line. The pupils are taught designing and making rugs, curtains, all kinds of household articles and are taught to make in an artistic manner articles that can be used in their own homes. Thus with the manual feature is embraced the training of girls to make attractive homes. They study modeling in clay, the making of pottery, weaving and the industrial arts. This department has met with notable success in North Carolina and is an example of the manual training work that is being done in the South.

Suffering and Dollars Saved.

E. S. Loper, of Marilla, N. Y., says: "I am a carpenter and have had many severe cuts healed by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It has saved me suffering and dollars. It is by far the best healing salve I have ever found." Heals, burns, sores, ulcers, fever sores, eczema and piles. 25c at R. R. Bellamy, Druggist.

WOMAN'S POWER

The healthy woman; strong mentally and physically, whose ambition and magnetic influence urge men to deeds of grandeur and heroism; such women are all-powerful.

Weak, sick and ailing women have little ambition; their own troubles occupy all their thoughts. They dwell upon their pains, suffer from nervousness and headaches; often are extremely melancholy, and avoid society. For thirty years

Mrs. Louise Jung, of 332 Chestnut St., Detroit, Mich., writes:

"I suffered from a very severe female weakness for a long time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, restored my health. I hope it will do other women as much good as it has me."

Mrs. Emma Wheaton, of Vienna, W. Va., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I was a walking shadow. My husband insisted upon my writing to you and trying Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did. It relieved all my pains and misery, and made of me a very different woman."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

New York, April 20.—The cotton market made new low records for the season during today's trading with the close steady at a net decline of 14 to 26 points. Sales for the day were estimated at 275,000 bales.

The market opened steady at a net decline of 2 to 7 points as compared with last Thursday and quickly increased the loss notwithstanding reports of too much rain in the Western belt. At first there was a scattering demand from commission houses which was probably based on reports of overflows in the Southwest and the possibility that replanting might be necessary, but there was active demand, particularly for European account. One large house with German connections was credited with selling fully 20,000 bales of July during the first half hour. There was also a pressure from Wall Street and taken altogether the market ruled very weak and unsettled, with the close at practically the lowest figures of the day on the old crop positions, and only a couple of points up on the new crop as a result of covering. Advices from Germany regarding trade conditions were very unfavorable and the impression prevailed here that it was too early in the season for washouts in the Southwest to be an important factor. Liverpool was closed owing to a continuation of the Easter holidays and tomorrow the New Orleans market will be for Spring elections.

Receipts at the ports today were 9,083 bales, against 8,961 last week and 12,796 last year; for the week 85,000 bales, against 71,514 last week, and 72,051 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans were 4,546 bales against 4,390 last year, and at Houston 2,822 bales against 1,455 last year.

Spot closed quiet; middling uplands 9.90; middling gulf 10.15. Futures opened and closed steady.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, April 20.—The dry goods market was quiet for the day. Cotton goods and cotton yarns showed a further easing tendency under the influence of lower cotton markets and a continued light demand. Dress goods are quiet, generally speaking but some lines of well styled fabrics in popular colors are hard to get for quick shipment. Raw silk is firmer here and abroad but the local markets show a light demand from manufacturers. Reports from the retail stores show that the Easter business was up to the trade of a nominal year, but not equal to the trade of the past two or three years. The textile manufacturing and cutting up trades in this section are not well employed.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, April 20.—The stock market made a poor start today after the three days' cessation of business. This was partly due to foreign markets remaining closed according to custom, for Easter Monday. The market was exceedingly torpid and the professional room traders had difficulty in effecting any movement of prices. An item that helped to sustain early prices was the news of the resumption of mining operations today by many thousand of soft coal miners. Something was made, also, of the continued assertions that negotiations were in progress to effect an advance in freight rates by the railroads in an effort to rectify the cut in their revenues.

The bank statement published during the holiday interval confirmed all other evidences of the heavy accumulation of cash which is going on at this center, the surplus reserves of the banks having reached a round fifty million dollars. Call rates are not lower simply because the banks and trust companies by a tacit consent, are not pushing the lending of their funds in that department. The demand for time loans is very sluggish and offerings of commercial paper are light, choice grades commanding 4 to 4 1-2 per cent. Bonds were dull and irregular. Total sales, par value were $3,802,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales 318,900 shares.

FINANCIAL MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

New York, April 20.—Money on call easy, 1 1-2 to 2 per cent.; ruling rate 1 1-2; closing bid 1 3-4; offered at 2. Time loans very dull and slightly easier; sixty days 2 1-2 per cent., and ninety days 2 1-2 to 2 3-4 per cent.; six months 3 1-2 to 3 3-4 per cent. Prime mercantile paper 4 to 4 1-4 per cent. Sterling exchange steady with actual business in bankers bills at 4.8720 to 4.8725 for demand and at 3.8475 to 4.8480 for sixty day bills. Commercial bills 4.84 1-2. Bar silver 54 5-8. MR. FORAKER ANTAGONIZED

By The Republican Senator From The State of Idaho.

SENATOR BORAH'S SPEECH

On Subject of the Negro Soldiers' Action at Brownsville—Upholds Action of the President—Speaker Sustained.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, April 20.—The affray at Brownsville, Texas, again called forth the most intense interest in the Senate today. In his maiden speech in the Senate, Senator Borah, of Idaho, taking the ground that the testimony showed conclusively that the negro soldiers of the Twenty-fifth regiment shot up the town, gave a careful analysis of the evidence in the case. There was an unusually large number of Senators present.

The morale of the army, Mr. Borah said, is paramount to any man's right to remain in it. If any man in the Twenty-fifth regiment participated in the riot and if others connived at the crime by concealing knowledge of it to shield the guilty parties then both were guilty alike, he declared.

Mr. Borah called attention to Mr. Foraker's suggestion that the citizens of Brownsville might have shot up their town to secure the removal of the negro soldiers. "Now, I confess," he said, "that there might have been a desire to attack the soldiers, but it seems that this conspiracy, if it had an existence, would not have turned its guns upon its own people."

He referred to "the judgement passed upon these soldiers by their own officers," and quoted their testimony to that effect given prior to the Senate investigation.

Mr. Borah announced his conclusion that the testimony "discloses the guilt of certain members of the Twenty-fifth infantry as participants in the Brownsville raid beyond a reasonable doubt. "If," he added, "They were guilty at all they were guilty of deliberate murder—murder planned and deliberated on and accomplished with deadly precision. The one point in which the rioters failed was with respect to the number of their victims. They evidently expected to kill more than they did.

"No more serious charge than this was ever made against a soldier of the United States. For less offenses many a soldier has been condemned and shot at sunrise. To my mind it was treason; if not technically so, yet morally treason in a most aggravated form."

House of Representatives.

With the exception of Messrs. Cooper and Nelson, of Wisconsin, Republicans, the House of Representatives today, by a strict party vote, declared that the action of Speaker Cannon last Saturday in summarily adjourning the House was not "a breach of the privilege of the House affecting the safety, dignity and the integrity of its proceedings." The declaration was made when a resolution by Mr. Williams, holding such breach to have been committed, was tabled.

The Republicans put through an amendment to the rules making any day "suspension day" and substituting a majority for a two-thirds vote to pass any measure. Messrs. Williams and DeArmond bitterly opposed the rule. Mr. Dalzell, its author, notified the Democrats they could trust to their imaginations for any legislation they get this season.

Following the adoption of the rule several conference reports were agreed to and one or two bills passed. The Democrats forced repeated roll calls during the day.

At 5:15 P. M. the House took a recess until 11:30 A. M. tomorrow.

C., New York City, won the twelfth annual renewal today of the Boston Athletic Association's Marathon Road race, covering the twenty-five miles from Ashland to the finish mark on Exeter street in two hours, 25 minutes and 43 1-5 seconds. Hayes' time was 2 hours, 26 minutes and 4 seconds, while Fowler took 2 hours, 26 minutes and 42 seconds.

THE NAVAL BILL UP

As Reported to the Senate—Increase Over House Bill—Ignores President's Demand for Four Battleships.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, April 20.—After consideration of less than two hours the Senate committee on Naval Affairs today reported the naval appropriation bill to the Senate. It carries $111,546,549, an increase of $7,579,031 over the amount of the bill as it was passed by the House.

On the battleship construction programme the Senate committee adopted the policy of the House, making no change in the provision for two vessels. The President's message advocating the construction of four battleships was not considered, as it was known that the committee was unanimously opposed to that programme.

Concerning the construction of colliers, a provision was incorporated in the bill that one should be built on the Pacific coast, which means Mare Island navy yard. An appropriation of $1,800,000 was made for the purchase of three colliers to be constructed by the Fore River Shipbuilding Company. Other important amendments were made as follows:

Increase of 20 per cent. in the pay of officers of the navy and civilian professors and instructors at the naval academy and of 10 per cent. in the pay of the enlisted force. Providing for the establishment of a women's nurse corps in the navy. Providing that naval bands shall not receive remuneration for music furnished in competition with civilian bands, and the provision for the increase of the marine corps.

CANNON AND WILLIAMS.

A Contest Between the Two Over the Speaker's Conduct Saturday.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

Washington, April 20.—John Sharp Williams, the minority leader in the House of Representatives, today directed attention to what he called the speaker's breach of the privileges of the House in arbitrarily adjourning the House on Saturday last. He declared the speaker's act was one of the gravest things that had occurred in parliamentary history.

"All talk," he said, "about a breach in the personal friendship existing between you and me, Mr. Speaker, growing out of what I regard as your Saturday evening's arbitrary adjournment of the House is nonsense."

Mr. Williams then spoke of the constitutional rights of members to a vote by yeas and nays. "The speaker's action is undeniable and is undenied by him," he said. "The speaker cannot deny that it was his intent and purpose to cut off the right to demand the yeas and nays and that was the reason why he did not make the open ruling, but, instead, resorted to this unprecedented parliamentary act, by ignoring a demand, and explaining through the press, when there was no House to appeal to, nor to explain his purpose to.

"The truth is, Mr. Speaker, that you are one of the best men in the world, but a long and undisturbed power, whose lesser abuses have been good naturedly passed over has made you somewhat despotic and intolerable of position."

For some moons, he said, members of the House and the press gallery had noticed that the speaker frequently had made a jest of some official act and no doubt the speaker thought he could so treat Saturday's incident. "But," he said, "the motive and effect of that action, which was unprecedented and unannounced was to destroy the very essence of representative government by annihilating the constitutionally guaranteed right of one-fifth of the House to place themselves on record in all cases."

Craving the indulgence of the House, Speaker Cannon declared in reply that under normal conditions the rules of the House were to be observed.

"In the recollection of the chair," said Mr. Cannon, "since the present occupant has occupied the chair, respect has been paid to the constitution and to the rules framed under it." He then quoted the rule regarding dilatory tactics, and explained wherein Mr. Williams was proceeding in a dilatory manner at the time he declared the House adjourned.

A motion by Mr. Payne to table Mr. Williams' resolution was carried 146 to 119.

ANARCHIST AT WORK

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, April 20.—Another attempt was made today to kill President Estrada Cabrera, of Guatemala, at Guatemala City, the capital of the Republic, according to a cable dispatch received tonight by Dr. Ramon Bengoechea, Guatemalan consul in this city. The dispatch follows:

"As President Manuel Estrada Cabrera was entering the place to receive in pubilc audience William Heinke, the American minister, there occurred a series of explosions. Fortunately his excellency escaped with only the loss of a finger. Complete order and tranquility prevails in all the country."

FATAL SHOOTING

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Winston-Salem, N. C., April 20.—James Tilly, Jr., was shot and his father seriously hurt as the result of an altercation with the Kernersville police, twelve miles South of here today. The elder Tilly had been arrested for disorderly conduct and was struck by the arresting officer. This, it is said, enraged the young man who secured a shot gun and attempted to shoot the officer. The officer fired first and fatally wounded young Tilly.

COLONEL BRYAN IN NEW YORK

His Lecturing Tour Brings Him to The Metropolis of The Country.

HE TALKS TO REPORTERS

Non-Committal as to His Success—There to Meet Mrs. Bryan on Her Return From Europe—Other Speeches.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, April 20.—His lecturing tour brought William J. Bryan to this city today and he had also planned to meet Mrs. Bryan on her arrival from Europe tomorrow. At the Hoffman House he was joined during the day by Miss Grace Bryan, who has taken a holiday from her studies at a Virginia school to welcome her mother home. Mrs. Bryan is a passenger on the Atlantic transport liner Minnehaha. The steamer was reported off Nantucket today. The vessel will land her passengers tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan will leave for the west on Thursday. In the meantime Mr. Bryan will fill several engagements and take part in conferences of more or less political significance. After his arrival from Utica early today he breakfasted with Colonel Henry Watterson, met many personal friends, including some prominent Democrats and chatted with the newspaper men. Tonight he delivered his lecture on "The Old World and Its Ways" at the St. Simeons Episcopal church. Earlier in the evening he had dined with the rector, Rev. Ralph Walker. Tomorrow he will be entertained by Governor Fort and others at Trenton, N. J., and in the evening he will address the people's institute at Cooper Union here. Later he will attend the dinner of the Missouri society of New York. Wednesday evening he will be a guest at the joint banquet of the Associated Press and American Newspaper Publishers' Association. His lecture at Cooper Union will have no bearing on political affairs. Aside from a few lecture engagements in Nebraska, Mr. Bryan said, tonight, he had nothing scheduled until May 13th, when he is to attend the conference to be held at Washington "to further the conservation of our natural resources."

With interviewers today Mr. Bryan persistently avoided discussion of the political situation in this State. Mr. Bryan talked freely on other matters. One interviewer suggested that the Nebraskan having been credited with an earning capacity of from $50,000 to $75,000 a year, might be exposed to the charge by opponents that he was no longer representative of the laboring class but a full fledged plutocrat. To this Mr. Bryan replied:

"My income is derived mainly from lecturing, with some addition from articles written for other publications and something from my own paper, but the amount has been very much exaggerated. I make more speeches for nothing than for pay, and devote more time to public work than private gain. The income that I have received has come from the people who attend my lectures and who read what I write and, therefore, my obligation is to the whole people rather than to any special class. The best test of the effect of my income is to be found in the things that I advocate. My views have not changed upon public questions. I am contending for the same things now that I did then and I think no one will deny that I could make more by siding with the corporate interests.

THE BATTLESHIP FLEET

At Los Angeles and the Men Royally Entertained.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

Los Angeles, Cal., April 20.—A long day of merry making by the sailors of the American battleship fleet was brought to a close tonight with two big banquets, one to the petty officers at the largest cafe in the city and the other to the admirals and commanding officers of the fleet and members of their staffs. The latter function was provided at the Hotel Alexandria, the official fleet headquarters, and was made the occasion of formal welcome to Los Angeles. Both Mayor A. C. Harper and Governor J. N. Gillett being included among the speakers. Rear Admiral Charles M. Thomas, in command of the fleet, responded to the addresses of welcome.

A vacant chiar marked the place originally assigned to Rear Admiral Evans.

One-fourth of the men included in the entire enlisted force of the fleet came ashore to take part in the festivities planned in their honor. There were 3,600 sailors and marines in the liberty parties. Once on the beach they found free trains and trolley cars awaiting them; and, arriving in the city they found all manner of conveniences at their disposal. Most of the sailors made at once for chutes park, where an amatuer boxing carnival, managed and refereed by J. J. Jeffries was the first attraction of the day.

The light weight championship of the fleet was decided today under navy regulations, Lutinski of the New Jersey winning from Myers of the Ohio in eight rounds. The barbecue and wild west show followed the boxing tournament and tonight the sailor boys have full possession of the streets.
